ENT TO BE HELD IN GREEN-CASTLE NEXT FRIDAY
AND SATURDAY

ND S TO FURNISH MUSIC

encastle Band To Give Weekly Concert On Friday Night Instead Of Thursday

Judges for the Putnam County 4-H exhibit to be held in Greencastle Friday and Saturday, August 10 and 11, were announced Friday by Gene Akers, 4-H club agent.
Lawrence Love, Eaton, will judge livestock; Robert Amick, Lafayette, will judge the boy's demonstrations; Edna Troth, Lafayette, will be the winners in the girl's demonstrations and the dress revue; Mrs.
Fred Evens, Marshall, will judge home economics work except baking; and Rulla Barbee, Terre Haute, probably will judge the clothing. A judge for the rabbit and poultry entries has not as yet been chosen, it was said.

Love is a recent graduate of Purdue university where he was a member of the Purdue champion livestock and dairy judging teams. Amick and Miss Troth are assistant state club leaders while the other judges are experts in home economics and vocational projects.

All exhibits by the more than 500 members will be housed in rent rooms around the downtown square. Street space will be taken up by concessions and those desiring space are asked to see Jacob J. Eitel, music for the exhibit will be provided all day Friday by the Roach-Bainbridge school band while the encastle band will move its regular Thursday night concert up to Friday evening. Street dances will be on both Friday and Saturday nights.

Service Clubs In Game Tonight

MARY AND KIWANIS WILL CLASH IN SOFT BALL TILT
AT 7:30 AT PLAYGROUND

Old rivalry will be resumed tonight at 7:30 o'clock under floodlights at the playground east of the high school gym as the Rotary and Kiwanis club clash in a 9-inning soft ball game. The two organizations tangled last week and the Rotarians led off with the long end of the bat, so consequently the Kiwanis will be out this evening to even the standing for the season.

Mr. Roosevelt, highly pleased with his tour, especially as regards Hawaii was scheduled to reach Washington August 9, remaining there until August 28, when he will establish temporary White House offices at his ancestral home at Hyde Park, N. Y., until the end of September.

The president will board his special train at Bonneville, motoring to the dam site after a brief parade through the streets of Portland.

The special train will leave Bonneville at 4:15 p. m. for Spokane and the Grand Coulee Dam, a $61,000,000 federal project.

The only major addresses on the run eastward was scheduled to come at St. Paul, Minn., although he is down for a speech at Green Bay, Wis., in connection with the tercentenary celebration of Wisconsin.

HEAVY RAIN FALLS

Drouth conditions were practically ended locally Thursday night when heavy rains swept the county. The downpour was accompanied by a thunderstorm and lightning. In this city the heavy rain washed rock from streets into sewers while roads over the county were damaged similarly.

STOLEN AUTO IS FOUND

The local authorities were notified Thursday that a 1934 model Chevrolet coach belonging to Paul Plost, Fifteen and Cedar streets, stolen from Terre Haute July 29, had been recovered at Pleasant Gardens on United States highway 40 by the state police department.—Terre Haute Star.

MR. ROOSEVELT RETURNS FROM OCEAN CRUISE

PRESIDENT DUE IN PORTLAND, OREGON, TODAY AFTER PACIFIC TRIP

BRONZED BY TROPIC SUN

Chief Executive Plans To Inspect Public Works Projects In Nation's Northwest.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3 (UP)— President Roosevelt was to put foot on United States soil today after a month's absence, spent on a 10,000 mile cruise which carried him to the nation's outposts to inspect workings of the "new deal."

Bronzed by tropical suns and looking the picture of health, the president was to come ashore ready to survey in detail the progress of gi-gantic public works and relief projects, mainly in the far west but extending also on the recovery battle line from coast to coast.

First of all the chief executive was desirous of looking over Bonneville Dam, a two-hour ride from Portland, where he planned to make his first public utterance in 30 days. From Bonneville his tour takes him to Grand Coulee, Wash., and to Fort Peck, Mont., where irrigation and flood control projects are underway, and thence to Glacier national park to spend the weekend in rest and study. He will arrive at Bonneville Dam about 2:30 p. m.

The presidential party came up the broad Columbia river from Astoria, Ore., where his flagship, the U. S. S.
Houston, and its convoy, the U. S. S.
New Orleans dropped anchor yesterday afternoon after a swift run from Honolulu.

Waiting with city officials on the dock were Mrs. Roosevelt and secretaries Stephen T. Early and Louis M.
Howe. The secretaries were armed with important administration documents they were anxious to place before him.

Mr. Roosevelt, highly pleased with
his tour, especially as regards Hawaii
was scheduled to reach Washington
August 9, remaining there until August 28, when he will establish temporary White House offices at his ancestral home at Hyde Park, N. Y., until the end of September.

The president will board his special

ville at 4:15 p. m. for Spokane and
the Grand Coulee Dam, a $61,000,000
federal project.

20 Years Ago IN GREENCASTLE

MR. R. P. Mullins of this city is visiting relatives.

Mrs. Mary Ann Elizabeth Woodall, age 84 years, passed away Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lula Alice Williams, west of Cloverdale, Mrs. Woodall was a life long resident of Putnam county.

Besides the daughter, Mrs. Williams she is survived by two brothers Charles Woodall of Cloverdale and John Woodall of Illinois.
Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Mt. Hebron church. Burial will be in the Salem cemetery.

BEN HARRIS ARRESTED ON TWO CHARGES

PLEADS GUILTY IN CIRCUIT COURT TO CHARGE OF INTOXICATION

IS HELD IN COUNTY JAIL

Effort To Be Made To Admit Bainbridge Man To Veteran's Hospital At Marion.

Ben Harris, 45 years old, of Bainbridge, was held in the county jail Friday following his arrest late Thursday on charges of public intoxication and assault and battery filed by William T. Berry. It was said an effort will be made to commit Harris to the U. S. Veteran's hospital at Marion for treatment.

Harris pleaded guilty in circuit court Friday morning to the charge of intoxication but said he didn't know anything about the assault and battery charge and could not enter a plea. Judge Wilbur S. Donner ordered him returned to the county jail.

The first affidavit alleges that Harris appeared on the streets of Bainbridge Thursday in a state of intoxication, while the assault charge alleges he struck Robert Berry, 8 years old, on the same date.

Walter F. Frank, town marshal of Bainbridge, said that Harris apparently was a peaceful citizen until he had two or three drinks under his belt which turned him into a dangerous character. He said he did not feel it was safe to allow Harris to return to Bainbridge.

An effort was made more than a year ago to confine Harris to a hospital for mental treatment but a sanitary commission found him sane. He then was admitted to the Marion hospital but was discharged after treatment. Still later he was arrested on an assault charge but sentence was withheld. His conduct since the latter offense apparently has been good until the outbreak Thursday.

Gun To Be Given Ballistic Tests

WEAPON TAKEN FROM NEGRO RELEASED HERE IS SENT TO INDIANAPOLIS

A gun taken from Thomas Bratton, 19-year old Indianapolis colored youth here Monday afternoon, was sent to Indianapolis Friday by Deputy Sheriff Walter Bryan where it will be given ballistic tests to determine whether or not the weapon was used by Bratton in a dance hall shooting in the capital city recently.

Bratton was released here Tuesday afternoon after local officers failed to connect him with any crime. Late Wednesday, however, Indianapolis police telephoned and said Bratton was wanted in connection with the shooting of an Indiana police man. Late Thursday they called again and requested that the gun carried by the negro be sent to Indianapolis for examination.

Bratton was taken into custody at the local Big Four station Monday when a conductor saw him carrying the gun.

FAIR CONCESSIONS

If there are any organizations or individuals in Putnam county who want concession space around the public square during the coming 4-H Club Fair, they are urged to see Jacob Eitel for available space at an early date.

Miss Mary O'Rear will leave Indianapolis Sunday morning for Chicago where she is being sent for an audition in connection with the "Hollywood Hotel" contest sponsored by the Columbia Broadcasting station. Miss O'Rear was state winner of the contest held in Indianapolis over station WFBM.

20 Years Ago IN GREENCASTLE

Mrs. Fred O'Hair returned home from a visit with relatives in Evansville.

Reese Matson went to Chicago to visit his sister, Mrs. C. W. Brown.

All records for the observatory golf course were broken this afternoon by Simmie Sayers who shot the first six holes in 22 strokes and turned in a card of 77 for three times around, lowering by one stroke the score of 78 recently made by E. B. Taylor for 18-holes.

As Hitler Bade Dying Hindenburg Farewell

Radioed from Germany, this photo shows Chancelor Adolf Hitler, center, escorted by a black uniformed S. S. guard, leaving the Neudeck, East Prussian estate of dying reich's president, Paul Von Hindenburg, in company with the latter's son Col. Oskar, after the Nazi dictator had bade a last farewell to the 86-year-old field marshal here.
With the passing of Hindenburg, Hitler quickly wiped out constitutional succession provisions, and assumed full powers by combining the duties and offices of chancellor and president, though spurn-ing the latter title.

Live Stock In Chicago Moving

COMMISSION MERCHANT EM-PLOYEES WALK OUT AS EFFORT IS MADE TO HANDLE STOCK

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (UP)—Four hundred commission house employes struck today at the Union Stockyards, bringing to a crisis a walkout that has halted activities of the world's largest livestock market for 11 days.
Police reserves were hurriedly posted throughout the maze of cattle pens and chutes in fear that hundreds of Union pickets may clash with strikebreakers.

Commission firms reiterated their determination, announced yesterday to resume trading despite the strike.
The walkout came on the heels of an announcement that Gen. Hugh Johnson, NRA administrator, would meet today with conciliators and the disputing parties. Johnson at first declined to "get mixed up in" the controversy, but later heeded the pleas of mediators and principals.

A test of strength between the warring factions was temporarily avoided when members of commission firms and their office workers unloaded and handled the first cattle received since July 25.

Pickets of the two striking unions of livestock handlers, employes of the commission men and the stockyards, made no attempt to interfere with their substitutes.

They threatened openly, however, to prevent the use of strikebreakers.

Eight hundred stockyards company handlers struck July 24 in protest against alleged violations of a wage agreement reached last winter. Handlers for the commission firms, although not on strike, have been idle because of an embargo on incoming shipments.

Yesterday the commission men voted—unanimously, it was reported—to resume trading. By 10 p. m. trucks rolled into the yards with the first shipments.

Union men refused to handle the cattle because they would be required to work with non-union men hired since the strike by the stockyards company.

"We didn't strike," contended Hubert Stevens, president of the commission house local. "We notified our employers three days ago that we couldn't work with the strikebreakers, so their action in re-employing shipments was tantamount to a lockout."

The development was viewed with foreboding by Carl Steffensen, secretary of the regional labor board, who has been acting with federal mediators to settle the strike.

"I'm afraid it means trouble," he said.
The walkout brought to 1,600 the number of men on strike in the local industry. A strike of 400 butchers, however, was regarded as having no direct connection with that of the handlers.

TWINS BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Evens of Madison township are the parents of twins born Friday morning. The daughter, Marlene Ann and Marvin Amos the son weighs six and one fourth pounds.

BOLT SCORES 4 PUT OUTS

FRANKFORT, Ind., Aug. 3 —Lightning broke up a soft ball game between Lafayette and Frankfort yesterday when the bolt made four "put outs" in quick succession.

Striking a tree near the third base line, the bolt shot across the diamond. A spectator, the Frankfort third baseman, pitcher and a Lafayette player standing at the plate were knocked unconscious.

None was hurt seriously.

EAST ROAD TO BE IMPROVED, CURTIS SAYS

WORK WILL BE DONE AS FED-ERAL PROJECT. TO BE WIDENED AND PAVED.

Benton Curtis, who is in charge of the local Federal work, announced Friday that the road east from the Greencastle city limits will be repaired. The new work will extend the full length of the old asphalt pavement which will run it to the east end of Commercial Place.

The old road will not only be resurfaced, but the sides will be widened to the extent of three feet on each side and this extension will be paved with asphalt.

This work will relieve a dangerous piece of road near the city limits and is one that has long been needed.
The new work will not only smooth up the present roadway but will widen it to the extent of making it perfectly safe for traffic, which is not the case at the present time.

During some of the work, Mr. Curtis says, the road will be closed. It can be detoured easily through Commercial Place and for the short time it will be closed, will not greatly inconvenience east and west bound traffic.

85 Mortgages Are Recorded In July

INCREASE NOTED IN NUMBER OF LOANS FROM FEDERAL CORPORATIONS

Property mortgages in Putnam county took a decided jump in July when a total of 85 were recorded in the entry book of mortgages in the county recorder's office. This number was said to be much greater than the number recorded in any preceding month.

Most of the mortgages were given to secure loans from the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, the Greencastle Production Credit Corporation, the Federal Land Bank and the Land Bank Commissioners.

Real estate mortgages led the various classes of mortgages, followed by chattel mortgages. A few note and school fund mortgages also were recorded.

HITLER WILL FACE CRISIS IN GERMANY

ECONOMIC PROBLEM CON-FRONTS VON HINDENBURG'S
SUCCESSOR

SCHACHT IS APPOINTED

German Leader Names World Famous Banker To Assist Him For Six Months.

BERLIN, Aug. 3 (UP)—Adolf Hitler, a commoner-kaiser, with the army and nation behind him, led Germany in mourning for President Paul Hindenburg today and prepared for a grim economic fight that may decide his political fight.

On the pages of Germany's long history there was written in a series of brief decrees and declarations the story of Hindenburg's death and Hitler's coincident rise to absolute dominance under the self selected title of "Fuehrer and Reich Chancellor"— king, president, prime minister and dictator in one.

Hitler, showing signs of genuine grief, busied himself with preparation of two funeral orations, one to be delivered at Reichstag services here Monday for the "Old One," the other to be delivered at Tannenberg on Tuesday when Hindenburg's body will be laid at rest under the generals' tower of the great Tannenberg memorial, a monument to the field marshal's greatest military triumph.

Behind all the funeral pageantry, the drama of the rise of the paperhanger-lance corporal to a national dominance undreamed of in modern times, there lay awaiting Hitler a task in which oratory will not avail him.

Germany faces an economic crisis of major importance. Hitler is supreme. It is Hitler or chaos. But in the gray fall and winter months he and his Nazis must guide the country through suffering and privation.

On his success depends his future.
To aid him, Hitler named Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, one of the world's foremost bankers, his minister of economics for a six months period.

It was significant that he did this on the day of Hindenburg's death, that Hindenburg's last official act, last Sunday, was to name Schacht to his new post.

It was significant also that Schacht is a hard-boiled, old-school financier.
For him no new deals, but economy and last ditch support of currency.
Schacht's appointment seemed to proclaim Germany's economic policy.

Almost as certain was the indication that its foreign policy is one of peace.

It was admitted that any spark might alight Europe in the flames of war. But it was indicated that the spark would not be ignited here as there was too much else to do.

Hitler decreed a national plebiscite for August 19 on the single question of merging the presidency and chancellorship into a post he would hold for life. The Fuehrer and Reich Chancellorship.

The answer of those of Germany's 55,000,000 people entitled to vote will be a simple "yes" or "no."

Hitler's letter to Minister of Interior Wilhelm Frick ordering the plebiscite and announcing his choice of title was abrupt.

It was known he long had planned to abolish the presidency on Hinden-burg's death. But in ordering the title thrown into the Nazi trash bin, he paid an eloquent tribute to the old field marshal—only the second man to hold it as a constitutionally elected candidate in the 16 years of the republic.

"The stature of him who has passed on," Hitler wrote, "has given the title of Reich president a unique meaning which we all feel is indissolubly connected with the name of he great departed and all that he meant to us. I ask, therefore, that you take care that in official and unofficial relations I, as before, shall be referred to only as Fuehrer and Reich Chancellor. This regulation shall apply at all future times."

During his first day of office as the world's most powerful ruler, Hitler made several other declarations.

One was a proclamation paying warm tribute to Hindenburg. Another was a declaration at a cabinet meeting last night:

"Through the Herr Reich president's death," he said to the standing Nazi ministers, "I have lost a GENERAL AID IN PROBE SECURITIES COMPANY INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3 (UP)—Federal government was asked to investigate operations of the company and Co. Securities company reports were received from investors in Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio had been swindled of thousands of dollars.

Investigation was sought by the state of Markum, administrator of the estate of Milton D. Ullman, head of the company.

Employees of the company were sought for questioning. Ullman died July 17 and was buried in Chicago.

Markum said incomplete records of the company should have at least $100,000 of investor's money but he was unable to find assets of the company consisting of furnishings and other property.

Company's former office here, however, revealed that in 1933 and 1934 the company did a stock business of $1,000,000 with 141 customers in these states.

Company operated a branch office in St. Louis but when officials there were asked for an investigation they said the rooms empty, Markum had no records of the company's operations in St. Louis.
